Description

A refined silver brooch depicting a stylized orchid, with finely chiseled and subtly modeled petals in a naturalistic style. The heart of the flower is highlighted by a cluster of small red rhinestones mounted on stems, adding contrast and dimension to the composition. The reverse bears a lozenge-shaped hallmark, applied to a leaf, now illegible, but nonetheless attesting to meticulous silversmithing. The brooch features a functional and secure pin fastening. This piece is in keeping with the tradition of 20th-century floral jewelry, prized for its elegance and quality of execution. Specifications: Material: silver Motif: orchid Embellishment: red rhinestones mounted on stems Hallmark: lozenge, illegible (present on the reverse on a leaf) Length: 8 cm Width: 6 cm Period: 20th century, Art Nouveau
