Charming pair of vintage earrings in finely engraved translucent plexiglass, decorated with a stylized floral motif.

Each earring features a circular upper element, delicately adorned with engraved concentric circle patterns, from which hangs an elongated oval drop, engraved with a central flower with radiating petals, accompanied by stylized foliage. The transparency of the plexiglass, combined with the raised engraving, creates subtle plays of light and depth.

The earrings are fitted with silver-tone / nickel-plated metal clip fastenings, allowing for comfortable wear without pierced ears.

This piece perfectly illustrates the elegant and inventive aesthetic of mid-20th-century costume jewelry, a period marked by the rise of synthetic
