Description

Large solid oak bookcase from the late 19th century. This model is unusually large, its generous dimensions offering ample storage space. The front is beautifully carved, with the cornice and lower section featuring a molding that follows the contour of the front upright. Two large twisted columns adorn the front, in the Louis XVIII style. All shelves are adjustable thanks to racks. The interiors are meticulously finished and glazed. The patina is achieved with beeswax. H 251 cm D 53 cm W 213 cm. Shipping included for mainland France.
