Description

In the world of antiques, few objects carry the charm and sacredness of a 17th-century wooden tabernacle. This extraordinary piece of carved wood is more than just furniture; it is a living testament to Baroque art, where master craftsmanship meets profound devotion. The lacquered and gilded finish captures light sublimely, creating a play of reflections that enhances any setting, whether a private collection or a prestigious exhibition space. Measuring 52 cm in height and 60 cm in width, 40 cm deep, the piece is in good overall condition, preserving its historical soul and the quality of the original 17th-century carving. Owning an object of this caliber means investing in time and eternal beauty. This is a rare opportunity for discerning collectors to secure an authentic piece capable of
