Description

This remarkable 21 cm tall Chinese sculpture, dating from the mid-20th century, is a true celebration of oriental refinement. Hand-carved from natural rose quartz with a translucent sheen, it depicts a court lady and her child with exquisite tenderness. The piece displays natural frosting (internal ice fissures) characteristic of the genuine stone, but remains in remarkable condition, without any restoration or repairs. Presented on its original finely carved wooden base, this unique collector's item combines the raw purity of crystal with the finesse of historical craftsmanship, making it ideal for enhancing a prestigious interior.
