Description

A beautiful Slamp Moon lamp, an iconic creation by designer Samuel Parker, produced by SLAMP in Italy in 1994. This emblematic piece of postmodern design is distinguished by its sculptural lines and interplay of volumes, typical of the innovative aesthetic developed by the Italian brand in the 1990s. Made of technical plastic, the lamp diffuses a soft, graphic light, ideal both as a decorative lamp and as a contemporary design collector's item.
