Description

Elegant wall shelf created using authentic 18th-century elements, finely carved and gilded, originally from period furniture.The composition displays a refined decorative balance in the Baroque taste, featuring rich carving with scrolls, foliage and cartouches.A particularly noteworthy feature is the inclusion of an 18th-century reliquary, incorporated into the structure as the central ornamental element, giving the piece a unique character and strong historical interest.The upper shelf is made of wood lacquered in faux marble, executed at a later date, harmoniously matched to the gilding, providing functionality while respecting the period aesthetic.This shelf is a highly decorative and striking piece, ideal for classic interiors, antique collections or prestigious settings.Period: 18th century (elements)Materials:
