Description

Some furnishings do more than just decorate a room; they define its soul and prestige. This pair of twin mirrors, a masterpiece of 19th-century Bolognese carving, perfectly embodies the excellence and refined taste of the Italian nobility. Crafted entirely from hand-carved wood, the mirrors feature masterful gilding that captures and reflects light with unique depth. The design is a triumph of Baroque-inspired decoration: elegant vases overflowing with flowers adorn the sides, while the magnificent crest featuring a pair of dolphins symbolizes the harmony and majesty typical of the most renowned Bolognese workshops. The dimensions are grand and dramatic: height 110 cm by a width of 150 cm. This is an ideal size to dominate the wall of an important salon or to be positioned above a pair
