Description

Courrèges Paris coat, style 14000, made in France, dating from the late 1960s/1970s, a period during which the Courrèges fashion house developed a structured, graphic, and functional wardrobe. The coat features a straight, architectural cut, mid-calf length, with an asymmetrical double-breasted closure fastened by round black buttons. The contrasting beige-red-orange and black panels at the shoulders and sleeves recall Courrèges' iconic graphic work of the 1970s. The rounded collar, slanted pockets, and panel construction emphasize a piece designed for line and structure, with a balance between functionality and aesthetics. Material: Main fabric: structured thick wool. Lining present. Original buttons. Made in France. Courrèges Paris label. Model reference:
