Description

Near mint condition, 22 cm diameter. Scenes available: 1 x Scene 1 plate. This model is no longer in production (production 2002-2018). SI KIANG is a perfect example of the "Old Marseille" decorations found on earthenware services made in the south of France in the 18th century. Chinese-inspired designs were fashionable at the time, reflecting Europeans' fascination with the Orient and its influence on the decorative arts. A great lover of antiques, André Raynaud acquired an earthenware plate in 1974, admiring its designs, and decided to transpose them onto his delicate, fine, and translucent porcelain, allowing for a perfect and vibrant rendering of the designs and colors. This service offers six original scenes, present on all the plates and cups, depicting bucolic scenes of fishermen amidst exotic nature. Foliage and birds punctuate the rims of the plates, whose edges are adorned with an elegant combed border.

vert.Raynaud is today re-enchanting this emblematic decoration of the House on "Argent", a scalloped shape from the 18th century, to better ennoble it.
