Description

Francisco Collantes, circle of. Oil on canvas, "Charming Conversation on a Stormy Evening," unsigned. Spanish School. 58 x 87 cm. Francisco Collantes (1599-1656) innovated within the Spanish School by specializing in the creation of dark, rocky, and wooded landscapes where the often leaden sky foreshadows the coming storm. In this, the artist drew upon the Italian tradition of Titian (Tiziano Vecellio Titian, 1485-1576) or Bassano (Jacopo da Ponte Bassano, 1510-1592) and the Dutch tradition of the preceding decades. Our painting is a fine example of a rare tradition prevalent in the 17th-century Spanish School. Unframed. The painting was restored during the 20th century (relined). Good overall condition. 1800 euros.
