Description

A captivating Cicim originating from Mut in southeastern Anatolia. Cicim, pronounced "jidjim," are pieces that are both woven and embroidered. A second weft thread creates the patterns. This one is exquisite, with a beautiful patina in shades of yellow and orange. The workmanship is remarkable, featuring a highly graphic composition and intricately interwoven directional shapes. The piece is in perfect condition. It's a true ray of sunshine! Circa 1930. Dimensions: 140 x 90 cm. Laurent, Beauty of Kilims
