Description

Art Nouveau Enamelled Glass Vase - Legras, circa 1900. Important Art Nouveau vase in marbled brown-amber and red glass, richly enamelled and gilded with stylized hydrangea blossoms in bluish and green tones, highlighted with gilt accents. The slender body features a superb cloudy background typical of Legras production, showcasing a floral decoration in relief of great finesse. The neck is adorned with a gilt band, adding elegance and balance to the whole. A characteristic piece from the Legras firm, one of the greatest French glassmakers of the Art Nouveau period. Period: Circa 1898-1908. Technique: Marbled glass, polychrome enamelling in relief, gilding. Condition: Very good overall condition. No cracks or chips reported. Gilding and enamels
