Description

An elegant Art Deco coffee table with two tiers, crafted from rosewood, a precious wood prized for its rich color and deep grain. Dating from the 20th century, this piece is distinguished by its curved lines, its scalloped edges, and its superb fan-shaped veneer, typical of Art Deco refinement. The two-tiered design provides both visual balance and functionality, while the slender legs emphasize the overall lightness. The rosewood, with its warm and contrasting hues, lends this table an elegant and timeless presence. Perfect as a coffee table or side table, it integrates equally well into an Art Deco interior or a contemporary decor seeking a statement piece. Dimensions: Height: 63 cm Width of the smaller tier: 52 cm Width of the larger tier: 64.5 cm
