Description

An elegant Art Deco rosewood side table, dating from the 20th century, characterized by its balanced silhouette and exquisite craftsmanship. Its oval top, with its clean lines, rests on a sculpted central base, typical of the Art Deco style, providing both stability and visual lightness. Rosewood, a precious wood with deep hues and a pronounced grain, lends this piece a warm and refined presence. The discreet drawer integrated into the front enhances its functionality while preserving the elegance of the design. Ideal as an entryway table, side table, or small decorative table, this piece integrates seamlessly into both an Art Deco interior and a contemporary décor seeking a statement piece.
