Description

A very attractive engraving on paper, measuring 27cm x 29cm (plate size) and 36cm x 40cm (framed). Signed and dated 1923 in the plate, countersigned in pencil lower right, and annotated in pencil lower left: trial proof. This high-quality engraving depicts a shepherd family in a landscape that appears to be Orientalist. A student of Gustave Moreau, he exhibited his works in most of the Parisian Salons and abroad, winning a gold medal in the United States. He devoted himself primarily to engraving, using soft-ground etching, burin engraving, etching, aquatint, drypoint, etc. A beautiful collector's item. Free shipping within the European Union.
