Description

Platform wall console - Italy, 1950s. This platform wall console is an iconic example of mid-20th-century Italian modernism, typical of the 1950s. It features a carefully rhythmic wooden slate inlay, highlighting a geometric wooden top that incorporates a discreet drawer. The entire piece rests on a black metal frame, elegantly lightened by tapered brass legs, providing contrast and refinement. The balanced composition of wood, metal, and brass perfectly illustrates the post-war modernist aesthetic, where functionality and formal exploration are united with understated elegance. Mid-century modernist furniture, whether Italian, American, or Scandinavian, embodies a lifestyle based on controlled simplicity, quality craftsmanship, and timeless design. This console is a perfect
