Description

A pair of elegant and classic cabriolet armchairs with medallion backs and oval seats, crafted from carved and lacquered wood. This pair of comfortable chairs can be attributed to Jean Baptiste Boulard, a master craftsman in 1755. They feature ample and comfortable seating, lovely, understated, and elegant proportions, and are of Louis XVI period quality. These beautiful armchairs are admirably upholstered with high-quality fabrics and publisher's upholstery. In very good condition.
