Description

Magnificent set of six imperial spoons in solid silver. The spoons feature a magnificent decoration of an imperial eagle encircled by a laurel wreath and holding a thunderbolt in its talons. It is surrounded by ribbons and acanthus leaves. The back of the spoons is decorated with a rich motif of scrolls, acanthus leaves, and palmettes forming a blank cartouche. The stems, decorated with fillets and palmettes, join a large antique vase motif on the back of the spoons, surmounted by a large palmette. This decoration is very rich and pronounced, giving it a strong presence and maximum decorative effect. The spoons are gilded (vermeil). Each piece is hallmarked: Minerva 1st standard (pre-1973) for 950/1000 silver. Maker's mark: HS with a rising sun and a star for Henri Soufflot, active from
