Description

Walnut Bookcase - 19th Century. A substantial 19th-century solid walnut bookcase with a beautiful antique patina. The upper section features glazed doors with pointed arch decoration, creating an elegant architectural design and providing an ideal setting for displaying books or collectibles. The interior is fitted with shelves. The lower section consists of a central writing surface at the front, flanked on either side by storage units with drawers and doors, offering functional and harmonious storage capacity. A characterful piece with balanced proportions, typical of 19th-century furniture, combining elegance and utility. Some signs of age are present but do not detract from the overall appearance. Ideal for a classic interior, a study, or a charming library. Period: 19th century. Wood:
