Description

Color engraving by Martinet, Buffon's Natural History, 18th century, etching on laid paper. Original period etching, Louis XVI era (late 18th century, circa 1770-1786). Plate 931, Le Jougris. From the monumental edition of Histoire Naturelle des Oiseaux (Natural History of Birds) by Georges-Louis Leclerc, Comte de Buffon (1707-1788). Scientific and naturalist depiction of various bird species. Plate drawn and engraved by François-Nicolas Martinet (1726-1804), produced under the direction of Edme-Louis Daubenton for the "Planches Enluminées" (Hand-Colored Plates). An impression on period watermarked laid paper. The engraving is hand-colored with watercolor and framed with the typical yellow wash bordered by black rules specific to this deluxe edition.
