Description

Large abstract composition by Pietro Righettini - Bornic (1924-2017), Italy / Switzerland, Geneva, Abstract Art. A large-format work with strong decorative potential. Its aesthetic--characteristic of lyrical and informal abstraction--together with the relief-like treatment of the material, gives it a real visual presence, typical of the graphic explorations of the 1970s. Technique and support: Mixed media, likely using gouache and inks with reserve effects and reticulation on heavy paper. Central composition with organic and mineral forms. Material work featuring honeycomb-like textures and depth effects created through chromatic layering. Palette dominated by shades of gray, brown, earth tones, and teal-blue on a light background. Overall, it evokes the research of lyrical or informal
