Description

Pair of matchstick figurines, signed Giuseppe Vasari - 20th century. A pair of decorative silvered and gilded bronze figurines, depicting a common man and woman carrying baskets, crafted with remarkable attention to detail and lively expression. The figures stand on shaped and finely chiseled bases, embellished with ornamental relief motifs. The surfaces feature a warm, uniform patina, with elegant contrasting gilding that enhances the clothing, accessories, and architectural features. The cavity formed by the basket historically served as a practical and decorative way to store household matches next to the fireplace or in the kitchen.
