Description

An elegant Restoration period pedestal table in flame mahogany, resting on a central trilobed stem with a tripod base. The reversible circular top is covered in leather on one side and green felt on the other, framed by a mahogany molding. Beautifully crafted, with clean, balanced lines typical of early 19th-century French furniture. In very good overall condition, with the leather and felt in good condition. French work, circa 1820-1840. An elegant piece, ideal for a living room or study. Delivery within mainland France: EUR130. Contact us for more information.
