1 695 EUR

Signature : Gotthelf Greiner

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Porcelain

Description

A rare, and amusing pair of chinoiserie porcelain figures, late eighteenth-century Thuringia, possibly Gotthelf Greiner. She feeds a flower to the bird above her. He is being pecked by the bird above him. Marks: Underglaze crossed "Ls" with a horizontal bar (very faint on her). Incised model number "430". Dimensions: Height (him): 16 cm (6.3 in) Height (her): 16.5 cm (6.5 in) Condition: To the naked eye, these figures appear to be in very good condition, with no easily identifiable losses, damage, or apparent restoration. However, under ultraviolet light, flaring reveals high-quality, professional restoration as follows: Her: Left sleeve. Ends of large pink leaves on the tree trunk. Him: Right sleeve. Hat. Bird's head and back. Upper part of the tree trunk. Shipping/Import: Free to most destinations. EU
