Description

A beautiful and elegant Louis XVI style marble fireplace, crafted in the 19th century from a stunning red Griotte marble, this massive fireplace features a beautiful olive branch carved into the center of the frieze and rosettes at the ends. Its curved jambs are decorated with cascading flowers and inverted acanthus leaves. It has a hearth plate in red Griotte marble with a geometric pattern in CampanVert marble. It has been fully restored by our stonemason in our workshops. A multi-part cast iron interior is available, subject to availability. Currently on display in our showroom.
