Description

A superb 20th-century Aubusson tapestry depicting The Guitarist, an expressive and vibrant composition by Bouquillon.The scene highlights a stylized musical figure, animated by dynamic lines and a flamboyant palette dominated by deep reds, luminous yellows, and contrasting blues and blacks. The swirling movement of the background lends the work an almost musical intensity, conveying the energy and passion of the musician in full performance.The graphic treatment, reminiscent of expressionism, gives this tapestry a strong visual and decorative presence. It stands out as a statement piece, ideal for enhancing a contemporary or classic interior, a living room, a gallery, or a collection space.
