Description

Beautiful engraving on paper, measuring 16cm x 17cm (plate size) and 29cm x 30cm (framed). Monogrammed and dated in the plate 1937, countersigned in pencil lower right and numbered in pencil lower left, No. 20 of 55. This very high-quality engraving depicts a seated peasant woman with her rosary, a cow to her right, and a figure in a boat. A student of Gustave Moreau, he exhibited his works in most of the Parisian Salons and abroad, winning a gold medal in the United States. He devoted himself primarily to engraving, using soft-ground etching, burin, etching, aquatint, drypoint, etc. A fine collector's item. Free shipping within the European Union.
