

1920s Rattan Wicker Bamboo Armchair

980 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Rattan

Width : 78

Height : 101

Depth : 83

Description

Very Decorative Early 20th-Century Arts & Crafts Wicker Rattan Armchair by Dryad & CoA very decorative early 20th-century organic Arts & Crafts wicker and rattan armchair, attributed to Dryad & Co., beautifully showcasing the elegance and style of its era. Crafted around 1920 in the UK, this armchair features unusual curved armrests that flow seamlessly into the backrest, creating a noble and fluid silhouette. The design enhances its visual charm and adds a sense of movement and grace to the piece. Perfectly stable and solid, this handcrafted chair invites you to relax, read a book, or simply rest in comfort. Thanks to its simple yet organic rattan construction, the chair combines effortlessly with contemporary, rustic, or traditional interiors. It boasts a lovely fluted form, further highlighted by

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

the natural beauty of the wicker. While in excellent overall condition, it does show minor signs of age and use, which do not compromise its structure or appeal and only add to its character. With a seat height of 40 cm, this lounge chair remains a timeless and highly decorative statement piece.