Description

Antique oil on canvas dating from the 18th century. Portrait of Queen Marie-Louise Gabrielle of Savoy of Spain. The sovereign is depicted in her court dress, draped in a large ermine mantle. Canvas cleaned and restored. 36.5cm x 30.5cm. Very good condition. Marie-Louise Gabrielle of Savoy (1688-1714) was a princess of the House of Savoy, who became Queen of Spain through her marriage to Philip V in 1701. Daughter of Victor Amadeus II, Duke of Savoy, she was sent at a very young age to the Spanish court in a diplomatic context linked to the War of the Spanish Succession. Intelligent, energetic, and politically astute, she played an important role in the government of the kingdom, acting as regent on several occasions during her husband's absences. Highly regarded
