Description

Presented on green silk without glass and in a beautiful Baroque frame, all from Italy, this collection of terracotta cameo prints (uncommon), known as the "Grand Tour," embodies the very essence of the artistic culture of our neighbors on the peninsula, where mythology significantly influences artistic genius. Based on the ancient worlds of Greek and Roman antiquity, gods and goddesses, through their symbols, provide guidance to an imaginary world conducive to the artistic creation of young students drawn to the applied arts, or journeymen of the "Devoir" (a French guild system) seeking direction for their work. These lovely, delicate prints were initially souvenirs of their journey, marked by numerous stages. No longer housed in a box, these beautiful terracotta pieces are now
