Description

This striking male portrait, sculpted with a keen sense of modeling, stands out for the grave and introspective expression of its face. The finely worked pointed beard enhances its virile and timeless character. The bronze features a beautiful dark brown patina with warm undertones, highlighting the facial reliefs: pronounced brow ridge, slightly downcast gaze, firm mouth, and powerful chin. The surface shows subtle traces of age, bearing witness to its history and contributing fully to its charm and authenticity. Unsigned, this mask belongs to an aesthetic at the crossroads of classical figurative sculpture and modernist sensibility. A wall-mounting fixture on the reverse allows for easy and secure installation. Bronze cast with a dark brown patina. Unsigned. No foundry mark.
