Description

This teak business desk, dating from 1930, perfectly embodies the harmony between robustness and refinement. Designed to meet the needs of professionals of the time, it offers optimized organization thanks to its six identical drawers at the front, arranged symmetrically on each side. Each drawer, equipped with wooden handles and locks on the upper drawers, allows for easy storage of documents and tools. At the rear, two discreet doors open to reveal additional storage space, housing two fixed shelves. This configuration allows for the storage of archives and bulky items while maintaining an organized interior. Teak wood, renowned for its strength and natural beauty, gives this piece exceptional longevity and a warm patina that transcends decades without losing its charm. With its
