Description

This mahogany extendable table is a testament to Victorian English craftsmanship, dating from the second half of the 19th century. Its distinctive square top features delicately rounded corners and a molded edge, showcasing the beauty of mahogany, prized for its strength and rich luster. The turned and gadrooned legs add a touch of ornamentation characteristic of Victorian aesthetics. These legs are finished with brass sabots, adding a touch of refinement and contrast to the overall design. Functional and adaptable, this table, which can seat up to 20 people, demonstrates the ingenuity of the artisans of the era, allowing for the elegant hosting of numerous guests. Its timeless style and craftsmanship make it an exceptional piece, both practical and decorative, embodying the opulence and refined
