Description

To own an antique is to welcome history into your home. The « 18th Century Bolognese Blonde Walnut Drop-Front Desk » is not merely an example of fine cabinet-making, but a journey into the heart of the 18th century. Crafted by a Master cabinetmaker who proudly signed his initials "P.L." on the left leg, this piece represents the excellence of Bolognese craftsmanship from that era. The warmth of the honey-toned walnut and the magnificent original patina enhance its elegant lines. Inside, the drop-front reveals a heart that is both functional and mysterious: internal compartments frame a central gallery that conceals a secret, accessible by simply moving the shelf. With a width of 100 cm, it is a piece of rare proportions, perfect for classic professional offices or prestigious living rooms. The desk is in
