Description

This superb Louis XVI style display cabinet in mahogany and mottled mahogany is distinguished by its meticulous craftsmanship and rich bronze ornamentation.

The upper section of the cabinet features two mottled mahogany glass doors, framed with brass moldings and adorned with chased bronze ribbon escutcheons. The lock is functional and comes with its key. The interior is fitted with two adjustable shelves on racks. The molded cornice, with its graduated profile, features projecting corners and is enhanced by an openwork brass gallery.

The semicircular uprights with stopped fluting, finished in brass, elegantly frame the doors. They
