Description

An elegant set of four modernist armchairs dating from the 1970s, featuring a clean, architectural design. Each chair has a chromed tubular metal frame paired with an olive green fabric seat and back, typical of the high-end modernist and office aesthetic of that period. The fabric-covered armrests provide both comfort and a pleasing graphic line. The set is sturdy, stable, and perfectly suited for a living room, office, waiting room, or mid-century modern interior.
