Description

Interesting music box in its original 19th-century rosewood case. The top is adorned with a marquetry bouquet of flowers and light wood stringing all around. The rim is molded all around. The front of the case is also decorated with light wood marquetry stringing. Inside is a superb lithograph listing the 8 musical tunes, surrounded by landscapes and castles with cherubs in very pleasing colors. The mechanism is in good condition and works perfectly. Very beautiful sound. The case has a key and a lock that does not work. Some signs of wear on the case (see photos). A certain charm for this beautiful collector's item.
