Description

An elegant hall coat rack, a symbol of 1970s Italian design. The sleek, architectural structure is characterized by clean lines and harmonious proportions, expressing a sophisticated and timeless taste. Crafted from beautiful briar wood, enhanced by a warm natural grain, the coat rack is embellished with polished brass trim that underscores its formal elegance. The front is enhanced by a mirrored panel, a functional and decorative element, perfectly integrated into the overall design. This piece is attributable to the design of Willy Rizzo, reflecting his distinctive style: precious materials, geometric rigor, and an idea of understated yet highly dramatic luxury. An iconic piece, ideal for stately entrances or interiors with a collectible feel. Era: 1970s Condition: excellent Origin:
