Description

Art Nouveau Daum Nancy box with silver lid. Elegant Art Nouveau covered box, made by the Daum factory in Nancy around 1900. The body is made of celadon green frosted glass, finely enameled and highlighted with gold, decorated with vegetal scrolls and small berries. The luminous decoration offers subtle effects of texture and transparency. The piece is topped with a solid silver lid, richly repoussé and chased with floral motifs. A beautiful finish and high-quality craftsmanship. Signed in gold under the base. Perfect condition. Height: 7 cm
Diameter: 14 cm
