Description

A charming corner cabinet in solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, a testament to a bygone era of refined living. Designed to blend seamlessly into your home, it combines classic aesthetics with understated functionality. Its upper section features three circular compartments for earthenware containers, perfect for recreating the ambiance of 19th-century boudoirs. The apron is delicately highlighted with blackened wood stringing, adding contrast and elegance. Halfway up, a shelf conceals a discreet drawer, ideal for storing small accessories or toiletries. The cabinet rests on three curved legs, connected by a T-shaped shelf, ensuring stability and sculptural charm. This small piece is more than just a decorative element: it can also serve as a planter, for example. This is a collector's item, a nod to
