Description

A solid oak buffet, dating from the mid-19th century, showcasing the graceful lines of the Louis XV style. The top is framed by a corbel-shaped border. The front opens with two paneled doors, mounted on wrought-iron hinges and adorned with finely crafted iron keyhole escutcheons featuring scroll motifs. The lock, in perfect working order, comes with its key. The rounded uprights extend harmoniously to the cabriole legs typical of the period. The interior offers practical storage space, equipped with an adjustable shelf on racks, allowing the height to be adapted as needed. The warm patina and meticulous woodwork make this piece an authentic find, ideal for lovers of characterful furniture. Period: Mid-19th century. Excellent condition after restoration in our cabinetmaking
