Description

A pair of paintings signed A. Minne depicting peaceful countryside scenes. The first painting shows a dirt path winding near houses, inviting the viewer to explore the nooks and crannies of this small hamlet. On the left, a house with a tiled roof evokes the simplicity and authenticity of rural life. Nearby, another building with a red roof adds a touch of vibrant color to the scene. A figure discreetly animates the scene, bent over and busy with a daily task. A barrel rests near the house. Chickens peck at the small path. The vegetation is lush: the trees, bushes, and grass give the landscape an impression of freshness and serenity. The partly cloudy sky reveals glimpses of blue, suggesting a pleasant and calm day. The gilded frame, richly decorated with floral and foliate motifs, underscores the precious nature of the work. It adds an elegant and classical dimension, reinforcing the idea that this painting is more than just a representation: it is a window onto a bygone world, imbued with gentleness and nostalgia. The second painting: In this gentle painting, rural life is expressed with simplicity and warmth. A schoolboy stands on a dirt path, surrounded by hens and a rooster pecking peacefully. His tranquil, almost contemplative posture suggests that he is at home in this familiar setting, in the heart of a village where time seems suspended. The house beside him, with its white walls and red roof, sports a green door, like an invitation to enter a warm home. It is nestled in a verdant setting, surrounded by leafy trees that sway gently beneath the blue sky. A few birds fly overhead, adding a touch of lightness to the scene. In the distance, a church steeple rises above the foliage. The richly ornamented gilt frame lends this humble scene a discreet nobility, as if it deserved to be preserved in collective memory.Period: Late 19th centuryExcellent conditionDelivery upon request in France and internationallyDimensions:Width: 52 cmHeight: 60 cmDepth: 4 cmReference: 040925https://www.antiquites-lecomte.com/boutique/cadres-et-tableaux/paire-de-tableaux-scenes-campagnardes-signes-a-minne-fin-xixe/
