Description

Crafted from finely chiseled bronze, these elegant two-light wall sconces perfectly illustrate the neoclassical taste of the Louis XVI style. Their balanced lines, adorned with delicate motifs such as ribbons, fluting, and acanthus leaves, testify to exceptional craftsmanship. Dating from the late 19th century, they have been carefully electrified, allowing for contemporary use while preserving their authenticity. Perfect for adding a touch of refinement and history to an interior, they evoke the hushed and prestigious atmosphere of salons of yesteryear. *****Period: Late 19th century.
