Description

Antique carved walnut cabinet with terracotta panels - Renaissance style - 19th century. Superb sideboard - Antique cabinet in walnut and terracotta, richly carved, in the Renaissance style, dating from the late 19th century. This remarkable piece is distinguished by the finesse of its high-relief sculptures representing mythological and allegorical scenes, executed with great artisanal precision. The piece comprises: An upper section with a central mirror framed by turned columns; two finely molded drawers in the frieze; two carved doors opening onto a storage space with a shelf; and a lower door decorated with a carved panel featuring floral motifs and a mascarón. The whole rests on a solid base and displays a beautiful, warm patina, typical of quality antique furniture.
