Description

This elegant chest of drawers, crafted from solid cherry wood, features a top edged with a chamfered edge, lending it a refined and traditional finish. The top has canted edges at the front, as do the uprights and legs, creating a harmonious and structured silhouette. The chest has five drawers, including one cleverly concealed within the lower plinth. Four of the drawers are fitted with working locks, each with its own key. The finely crafted, repoussé brass keyhole escutcheons depict delicate leaf and ribbon motifs, adding a subtle decorative touch. The cherry veneer on the drawer fronts is book-sawn, creating a natural symmetry of grain and visual geometry. Each drawer is framed with moldings that elegantly accentuate the lines of the piece. Finally, the lower plinth is also molded,
