Description

Very large early 20th-century lamp in painted porcelain and silvered bronze in the Louis XVI style with an antique finish. The lamp is in excellent structural and electrical condition. It is large, with a total height of 75 cm to the top of the shade. The beautiful hand-painted decoration features a charming couple in love within an ovoid porcelain section, surmounting a silvered bronze base with an antique-style frieze. The base itself rests on a solid marble plinth, ensuring great stability. This highly decorative lamp, due to its size and the quality of its materials, will add undeniable presence to any elegant interior. Shipping is available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. An invoice and certificate of authenticity are provided. Collection is possible
