Description

This Baloch Afghan rug is distinguished by its mihrab motif, a traditional symbol of spirituality and intimacy, inspired by sacred architecture.Handwoven using ancestral techniques, it reflects all the authenticity and simplicity characteristic of Baloch art. Its rich palette, dominated by warm and nuanced tones, highlights the fineness of the design and the regularity of the weave. The carefully selected wool offers a dense and durable texture, guaranteeing both comfort and longevity. A piece that is both decorative and imbued with meaning, this Baloch rug with its mihrab motif integrates harmoniously into both classic and contemporary interiors, adding a touch of character, elegance, and tradition.Size : 185 x 130 cm + 5 cm fringe on each sideCondition : Patina from use on the
