Description

A very beautiful black lacquered console table, inlaid with brass stringing and featuring rich Boulle marquetry composed of red tortoiseshell and engraved brass on the front with a floral motif, birds, mermaids, putti, etc. It opens with two doors to a varnished interior with two shelves mounted on adjustable racks. The piece is richly adorned with chased and gilded bronze mounts decorated with acanthus leaves, a gaudron molding, flowers, and putti motifs. It is topped with its original deep black marble slab, molded around the edge with a corbel and groove. The original lock and key are in perfect working order. The piece is in excellent condition, having been French polished. It can be easily disassembled if needed (for a hard-to-reach location) and is therefore very easy to transport.
