Description

Immerse yourself in the refined elegance of the 1700s with this magnificent "Pair of 18th-century lacquered Baroque chairs". These two side chairs are more than just furniture; they are authentic jewels of fine woodworking, capable of bringing a touch of history and nobility to any setting. Crafted from carved wood with artisan mastery, every detail speaks of the ornamental richness of the Baroque period. The lacquer in a delicate powder blue (carta da zucchero) offers a sophisticated and versatile tone that blends harmoniously with various styles. The true highlight lies in the gilded details embellishing the backrest, featuring a fascinating hot-air balloon motif (mongolfiera), a symbol of an era of discovery and wonder. Despite being over two centuries old, the pair is in excellent overall
